Colorado PERA Account Access

Accessing your PERA account online puts all your PERA information right at your fingertips. You'll be able to see how much money you've saved so far, estimate your future retirement check, add or update your beneficiary, and much more. You can even access your account on the go with our PERA app! To access your PERA information, you will need to create a user profile, and this fact sheet will walk you through the steps.
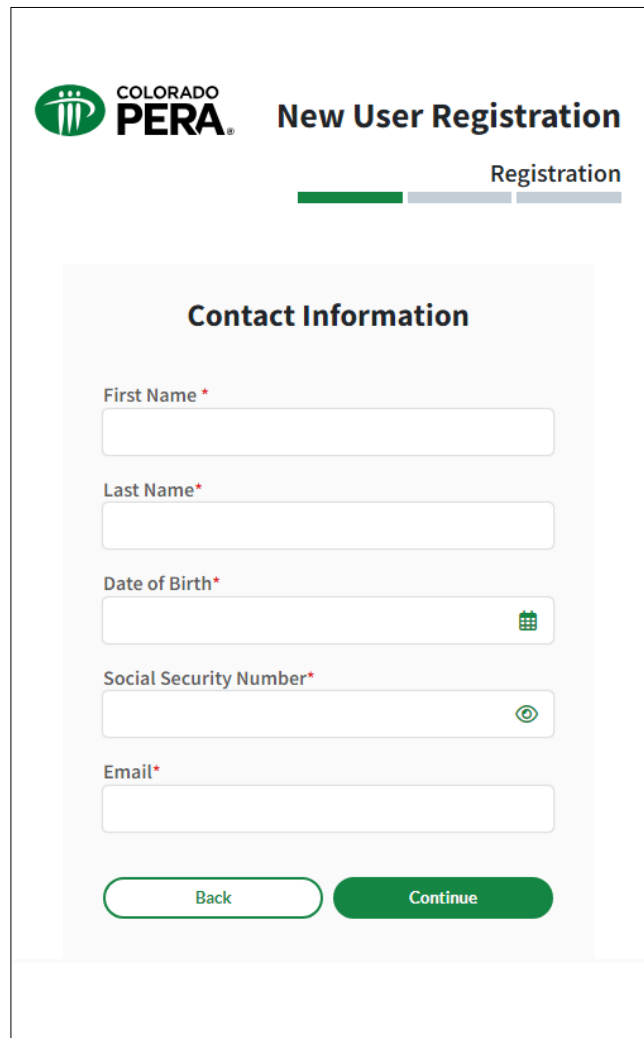

Register as a New User

» Click the "Member Login/Registration" button on copera.org.

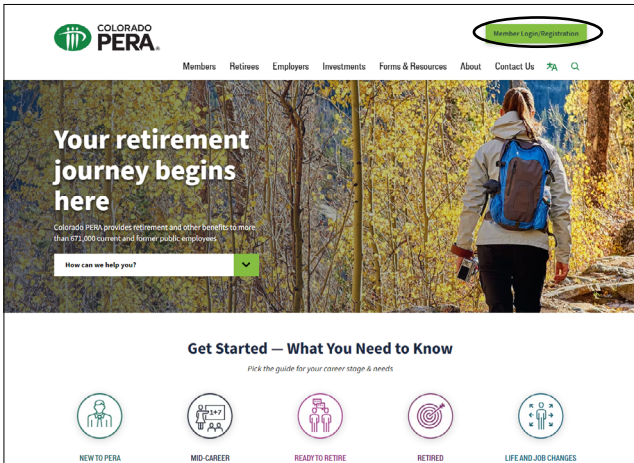

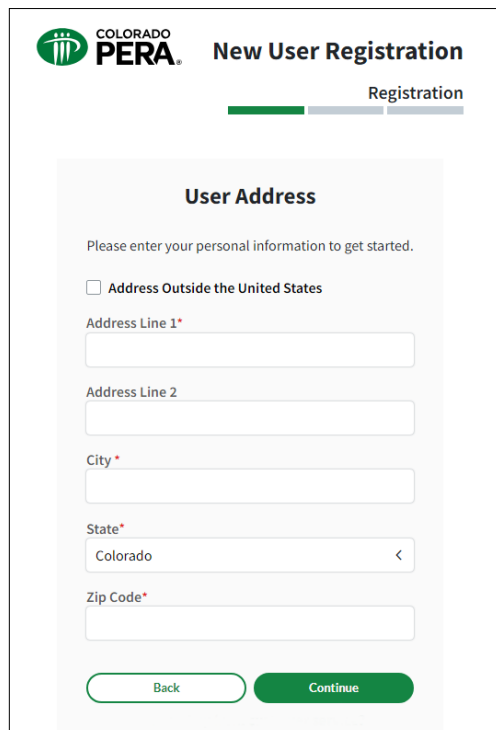

» Click "Register as a new user."
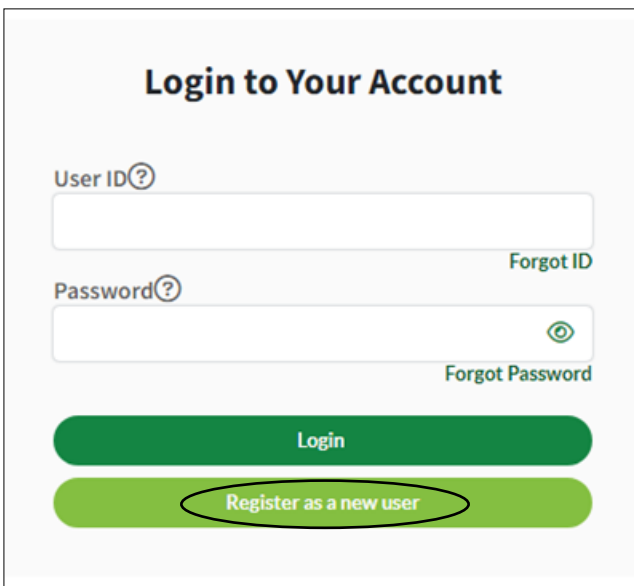

» After you have read and agreed to the Terms of Use Agreement, you will be directed to the "New User Registration" page.

» Under "Contact Information," enter your first and last name, date of birth (mm/dd/yyyy), Social Security number, and email.

» Under "User Address," please fill out your current address. Make sure to click "Address Outside the United States" if applicable.

» Next, under "Verify Your Identity," select your phone number and verification code method to receive a one-time code to your phone. If a valid number is not listed, select "Click here" to load more options.
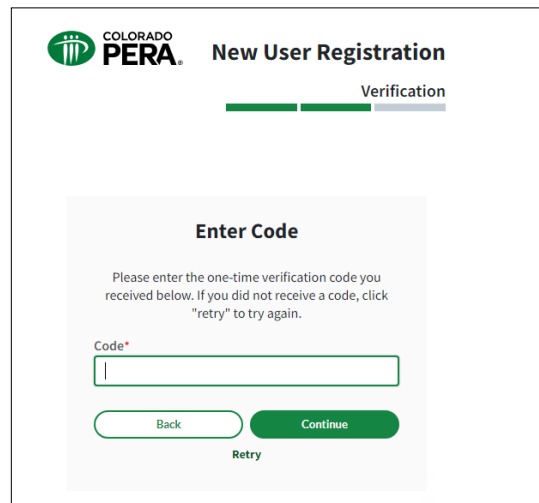

» Once you receive a verification code, please enter it under "Code."

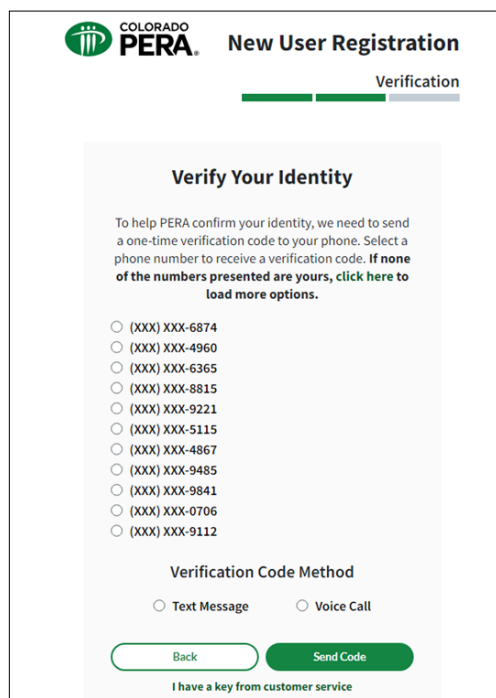

» After verifying your identity, you will need to create a user profile, which includes a User ID, email address, password, and recovery question.

Colorado PERA Account Access

» Once you create your user profile, you will be directed to log in to your account using your newly created User ID and password.
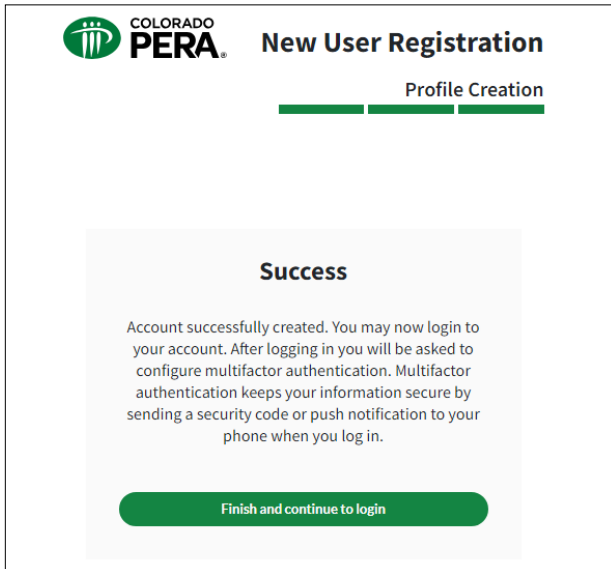

You may want to consider using a password manager to help you create and remember passwords all in one place.

Set Up Multifactor Authentication

- As an extra layer of security, you will be required to enroll in multifactor authentication in order to access your PERA account.

- In the future, you will log in to your PERA account with your User ID, password, and multifactor authentication method.

Need Help Logging In?
